Stay on top of current news, find library exhibits and events to attend and connect with us on social media!

news.lib.uci.edu
lib.uci.edu/exhibits
UCI Libraries’ facilities are open 19 hours during a typical day and 111 hours during a typical week. These buildings contain over 3,300 public seats for study and research.

The UCI Libraries’ electronic and print collection includes approximately:

- 3.8 million volumes (including over 1.3 million electronic books)
- 151,000 journals and serials
- 110,000 government documents
- 113,000 A/V materials, multimedia, maps, and more
- 1 million+ original documents and photographs

UCI Libraries’ facilities include 350,000 square feet in four locations.

Library Search is your first stop to finding materials! Wandering how to get started? Check out: lib.uci.edu/how-do-i Libraries employ 171 full-time equivalent staff led by the University Librarian.

Librarians provide research instruction to 18,000+ individuals.

Subject Librarians are here for your success and they also produce special library guides for their subjects! Find yours here: lib.uci.edu/subject-librarians

Library Services: So Much More than Books!

Library Services:
- Study centers are open 24/7 during finals week
- 570+ public access computers
- Borrow laptops, iPads, audio visual equipment and more
- Course Reserves save time and money
- Print, Copy & Scan

Library Search is your first stop to finding materials! Wishing how to get started? Check out: lib.uci.edu/how-do-i

The Libraries are home to a renowned community-driven archive. Become a part of history at the Orange County & Southeast Asian Archive (OC&SEAA).

UCI Libraries’ electronic and print collection includes:

- 3.8 million volumes (including over 1.3 million electronic books)
- 151,000 journals and serials
- 110,000 government documents
- 113,000 A/V materials, multimedia, maps, and more
- 1 million+ original documents and photographs

Library Search is your first stop to finding materials! Wondering how to get started? Check out: lib.uci.edu/how-do-i

UCI Libraries’ facilities are open 19 hours during a typical day and 111 hours during a typical week. These buildings contain over 3,300 public seats for study and research.

The Libraries employ 171 full-time equivalent staff led by the University Librarian.

Librarians provide research instruction to 18,000+ individuals.

Subject Librarians are here for your success and they also produce special library guides for their subjects! Find yours here: lib.uci.edu/subject-librarians

Library Search is your first stop to finding materials! Wishing how to get started? Check out: lib.uci.edu/how-do-i

The Libraries are home to a renowned community-driven archive. Become a part of history at the Orange County & Southeast Asian Archive (OC&SEAA).

UCI Libraries’ electronic and print collection includes:

- 3.8 million volumes (including over 1.3 million electronic books)
- 151,000 journals and serials
- 110,000 government documents
- 113,000 A/V materials, multimedia, maps, and more
- 1 million+ original documents and photographs

Library Search is your first stop to finding materials! Wondering how to get started? Check out: lib.uci.edu/how-do-i

The Libraries are home to a renowned community-driven archive. Become a part of history at the Orange County & Southeast Asian Archive (OC&SEAA).

UCI Libraries’ facilities are open 19 hours during a typical day and 111 hours during a typical week. These buildings contain over 3,300 public seats for study and research.

The Libraries employ 171 full-time equivalent staff led by the University Librarian.

Librarians provide research instruction to 18,000+ individuals.

Subject Librarians are here for your success and they also produce special library guides for their subjects! Find yours here: lib.uci.edu/subject-librarians

Library Search is your first stop to finding materials! Wishing how to get started? Check out: lib.uci.edu/how-do-i

The Libraries are home to a renowned community-driven archive. Become a part of history at the Orange County & Southeast Asian Archive (OC&SEAA).