

SCORE THREE! . . . Narbonne High School scored heavily in the Marine League Bank of America award contest placing, left to right, Joan Godsil, liberal arts; Beth Golightly, fine arts, and Ed Thorp, science, in three out of the four spots. Enid Larsen, right, of Banning copped the other in the field of vocational arts.—Lomita News photo by Bob Wilton.

NHS STUDENTS TAKE 3 PLACES IN ZONE TEST*

Three Narbonne students, Joan Godsil, Edward Thorp, and Beth Golightly, winners in the harbor zone competition, will vie in their respective fields for top honors in the annual Bank of America achievement award contest Friday night.

Appearing with the three local students before an all-city *committee will be Enid Larsen, of Banning, who won the fourth spot in the zone competition.

This contest carries a top cash prize of $1000 in each of four fields. Other awards are $500, $250, and $50. The awards will be made at an assembly in the 451 No. Hill street auditorium following the judging.

Last year Jo Bader of Narbonne won a $250 third prize in